

OLEKSANDRA MARTSON

Oleksandra Martson (b. 1984, Ukraine) is an emerging artist based in London. Most works are figurative oil paintings on canvas, some use mixed media. Oleksandra has projects with metal sculptures, pottery and sound art in her portfolio. She often combines painting and graphics in her art and researches human body as a symbol for our inner selves. Oleksandra works with themes of sleep, searching for safety and tranquility.

Oleksandra has extensive experience in textile design, but has made art her main career path over the past four years.
